The Indiana Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs seeks Hispanic/Latino Leaders

Indianapolis, IN- The Indiana Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs is seeking information on Hispanic/Latino leaders in Indiana as part of the Commission's Hispanic/Latino History Project. The project is ongoing and will include a historical timeline, information on Hispanic/Latino leaders, interviews with Hispanic/Latino veterans, and more. The project is a partnership with the Indiana State Library, the Indiana Historical Society and other organizations.

"The Hispanic/Latino history project was created to promote cooperation and understanding between Indiana communities," said Amy Mendoza, the Executive Director of the Commission. "We hope this project will educate Hoosiers about the many contributions the Hispanic/Latino population has made to the State of Indiana."

The Commission is accepting photographs and biographies for Hispanic/Latino leaders in Education, Health, Business, Grassroots Leadership, Government and other categories. The deadline for submissions is Monday, November 7, 2005.

All submissions should be mailed to: The Indiana Commission on Hispanic/Latino Affairs, 402 W. Washington St. Room W252. Submissions can also be emailed to: Amendoza@dwd.in.gov
